International students: Distance, On-Line & Hybrid Course Policy

Policy:

This policy clarifies best practices and guidelines to assist valued faculty in the instruction and advising of international students with respect to (i) enrolling/registering in the correct course load requirements; (ii) maintaining good-standing of international students' visa status; (iii) ensuring sufficient and adequate "physical presence" in the classroom; and, (iv) facilitating timely progress towards degree completion and graduation.

The U. S. Department of Homeland Security issued important regulations, particularly as to international students with F-1 visa status and their participation in registered classes. Alcorn must ensure compliance with the federal requirements, as well as applicable IHL and university policies (See the NAFSA and CFR below). This policy provides best practices and guidelines to assist valued faculty in instruction and advising of international students with respect to (i) enrolling/registering in the correct course load requirements; (ii) maintaining good-standing of international students' visa status; (iii) ensuring sufficient and adequate "physical presence" in the classroom; and, (iv) facilitating timely progress towards degree completion and graduation.

3.20.7 Distance education limits (NAFSA manual)

No more than the equivalent of one one-line/distance education class or 3 credits per session may count towards the "full course of study" requirement, if the course "does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class." If the student's course of study is in a language stud program, no on-line or distance education classes may be countered toward the full course of study requirement.

8 C.F.R. §214.2(f)(6)(i)(G)

(G) For F-1 students enrolled in classes for credit or classroom hours, no more than the equivalent of one class or three credits per session, term, semester, trimester, or quarter may be counted if taken on-line or through distance education in a course that does not require the student's physical attendance for classes, examination or other purposes integral to completion of the class. An on-line or distance education course is a course that is offered principally through the use of television, audio, or computer transmission including open broadcast, closed circuit, cable, microwave, or satellite, audio conferencing, or computer conferencing. If the F-1 student's course of study is in a language study program, no on-line or distance education classes may be considered to count toward classroom hours or credit.

Distance Learning/On-Line Courses

A distance learning or on-line course is one that does not require a(n international) student's physical presence for classes, exams and/or other purposes integral to course completion. At Alcorn, International students may take online classes, but only a maximum of three-credit hours of these may apply to the international student's full-time status each semester. This means only one 3 credit online course per semester may count towards the student's full-time status. Therefore, undergraduate students who are enrolled in twelve credits must take none of those credits in regular classroom-taught classes and graduates who are enrolled in nine credits must take six of those credits in traditional classroom-based classes. Hybrid courses are exempt from this classification.

Hybrid Courses

A hybrid course is one that blends online and traditional instruction and requires international students to maintain "physical presence in the classroom," at least partially. At Alcorn, instructors may evidence that international students are meeting the "physical presence" threshold by (1) requiring in-class attendance (a) in the first and last classroom sessions, (b) during classroom examinations, and/or (c) in other specifically-designated classroom sessions, such as major projects, laboratories, or presentations, or (2) physically monitoring or assigning an approved Alcorn employee to proctor the hybrid class while international students are in the classroom. Hybrid classes where students have the option to either participate online or in-class will be considered 100% on-line classes if students chose not to be physically present in the classroom.

Summary

- F01 students are required to take the minimum credit requirements of full-time hours each semester, except in the final semester.
- An international student's lawful F-1 status will be terminated if s/he:
 - Maintains a course load that falls below 12 undergraduate or 9 graduate credit hours;
 - Fails to register for all class sessions during the first registration period;
 - Fails to attend a registered class for which the student receives a UW grade; or,
 - Withdraws from a semester.
- Grades which count towards satisfying the full-time enrollment requirements are A, B, C., D., F, P (Pass), and I (Incomplete* so long as completed within the Catalog-specified limitation period).
- Grades which do not count towards satisfying the "full-time enrollment requirement" are W, UW, audit, and incomplete (I) grade which becomes an F.
- Failure to comply with the regulation [8 C.F.R. 214.2(f)(6)(i)(G)] violates a student's F-1 status.

Major Take-Away: Registration and Completion is Key

International students must not only pay full-time tuition & fees and enroll in a full course of study at the beginning of each semester, but must also complete a full course of study at the end of each semester.

Alcorn State University offers distance-, on-line-, and hybrid-mediated courses to overcome time and geographical constraints while meeting the access, convenience, flexibility, and time demands of our ever-diversifying community of evening, weekend, working, (non)traditional, digitally-oriented, rural, first-generation, disadvantaged, and international students.
